Margaret Lasky, USMC, Realizes Dream Come True

A dream that began when she was in the eighth grade came true last Tuesday when Margaret Lasky was sworn in as PFC of the United States Marine Corps. Margaret, now 18 years of age, is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Lasky of 2421 W. 236th place, Torrance, left for boot training at the Marine Base in Parris Island, South Carolina, the same day she was sworn in.

PFC. MARGARET LASKY

Margaret was born in St. Louis, Mo., and the family moved to Detroit, and then to Los Angeles, where she attended Dorsey high school. While in school Margaret belonged to the Varsity swimming team and the Girl's ROTC Powder Puff Rifle team.

Accomplished Riflewoman
Upon coming to Los Angeles she joined the Deputy Auxiliary Police Rifle team, which made her an honorary member of the National Rifle association. She possesses medals for sharpshooter, marksman 1st class, marksman, and pro-marksman.

The Lasky family moved to Torrance about a year ago from Los Angeles where Margaret attended Dorsey high school. Since moving here she attended Harbor JC where she studied two semesters of drama and also displayed her talent for modern dancing, appearing in several school shows. As a matter of fact, she admits she was at one time torn between a desire to become a dancer and joining the Marines.

First in the Family
This tall, winsome young miss is the first and only member of her entire family to be a member of the armed forces, as all the menfolks were ruled out because of age.

Dear Editor...

LATE NEWS

SAND & GRAVEL: Residents protesting the proposed Sand and Gravel Co. variance for a cement mixing hopper will meet tonight, Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Hillside elementary school, 25600 South Crenshaw Blvd. More than 150 residents have been organized to protest the variance, it was stated.

THEFT: Wheels and tires were stolen sometime Friday night from the Fred Briggs Chrysler-Plymouth agency, 1885 Torrance Blvd.

RACING: Residents along Clearsite and Susana have complained to police that racers are speeding up and down the streets, driving on the sidewalk, and front lawns. Police will watch the area.

STRIPPERS: Report that someone has been stripping new trucks on the Oscar Maples Ford lot was made to the police by Dwight Eubank of the local Ford agency. Three tubeless tires and three wheels were recovered.

VANISHING TURTLES: Four large turtles, one of them painted blue, were stolen from Edward R. Dawson, 1906 Plaza del Amo, according to police.

THEY'RE MARKED: Someone stole 14 pair of panties from Mrs. Ralph Williams, 3415 W. 225th St., sometime Wednesday last week. The panties have the names of the days of the week on them.

CLINOMETER
The clinometer is an instrument used to measure angles of elevation and depression. It is used by geologists to determine the dip of beds or strata, and by engineers to find embankment slopes.

My shock was not that something I felt was wrong was approved, but that such a number of people should be misled into thinking they had a voice in the decisions of the commission when it was all too obvious that the decision in this case had long since been reached without their help.

It was with a great deal of pride, pleasure, and more surprise that I found, on attending the City Council hearing of the matter (I attended for the same two reasons - but with a reversed set of values) a thoroughly aroused citizenry making themselves heard in what might without them have been a similar discouraging situation.

Sincerely yours,
